Planned Giving for a Secure Future.

Our Mission: By creating innovative opportunities that inspire people with disabilities, Achieve will enable every participant to lead a meaningful and self-determined life.

Who we are and what we do

Achieve first opened its doors in 1964. We currently operate as a day training and habilitation program serving adults with developmental disabilities. By focusing on abilities, not disabilities, we strive to increase independence and quality of life for each person in our program.

We serve individuals and our program plans are created to suit each person's individual and unique needs. In addition to work services, participants may receive help and training in areas such as communication, social skills, behavioral skills and motor skills. We provide services with the whole person in mind. Work is a priority, but so is quality of life.

By creating innovative opportunities that inspire the people we serve, Achieve strives to enable every person in our program to lead a meaningful and self-determined life.

Support from others

Each year, we receive tremendous support from families, businesses and other community members through donations, attendance at our fundraisers, employment of our participants and more. We couldn't provide the high quality services we've come to be known for if not for this support.

Achieve Endowment Fund

As we move forward toward our goal of increased financial self-sufficiency, and less reliance on uncertain governmental funding, we are building an Achieve Endowment Fund. Depending on circumstances Achieve may elect to earmark a portion of planned giving proceeds for this Fund.

Giving choices

Choosing the right planned gift depends on your individual circumstances and financial goals. Your gift can include: cash, stock, property (specific or by percentage), real estate, a gift in trust to benefit family members during their lifetimes with principal conveyed to Achieve at their passing or a gift of the remainder of the estate when other specific bequests have been fulfilled.

Thank you in advance for your gift through planned giving to Achieve. With strong supporters like you, we will continue to make a difference!
