Cole enjoying the new Achieve Hot Tub

Achieve's New Hot Tub

by Cole I.

Achieve has acquired a HOT TUB! Someone won it at the State Fair and they donated to us! As a group we decided to install it in the lunchroom. Not only was I the first person to try it out, but I've noticed it has a calming effect on you when you use it. I was very relaxed when I sat in the hot tub, but I'm not the one who's going to clean it!

Achiever Finds Chip Shaped Like The Achieve Logo, Sells for $35,000 on eBay

by Mike J. & Ryan S.

Achiever Mike made an unexpected discovery this week when he found a chip shaped almost exactly like the Achieve logo. With the help of staff, the rare snack was listed on eBay, where a fierce bidding war drove the final price to an unbelievable $35,000!

"I still wish I would've just eaten it," Mike said. The chip has since been shipped to its new owner, while Mike continues checking every bag for the next big find.

New Therapy Unicorn Arrives at Achieve

by Becky D. and Ryan S.

Becky and Thorus the Therapy Unicorn

The Achievers are abuzz with excitement that Achieve has welcomed a brand-new therapy animal, Thorus the Therapy Unicorn. While some people say he looks suspiciously like Thor the Therapy Dog wearing magical wings, experts insist he is 100% unicorn.

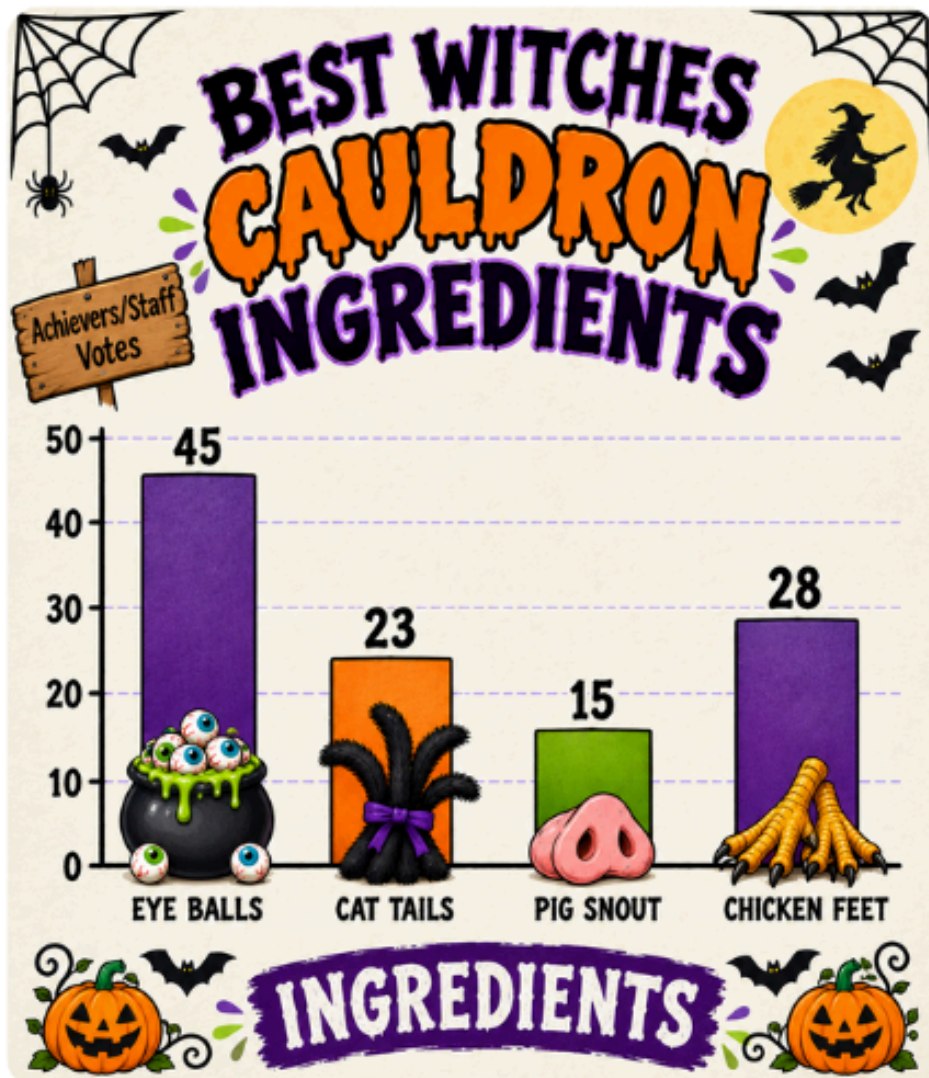

Thorus can often be seen flying through the sky, granting wishes, and spreading fun wherever he goes.

His favorite snack is hay, which Achievers somehow keep finding ways to sneak to him throughout the day.

When asked about the rumors that he is actually a dog in disguise, Thorus simply flicked his wings and flew away.

This Month In History

by Lee G. & Melissa D.

October

October 3rd, 1863 - President Abraham Lincoln issued a proclamation designating the last Thursday in November as gobble until you wobble day!

October 9th 1940 - John Lennon the guitarist from The Bugs was born!

October 12th, 1492 - After 33 days in space Christopher Columbus landed in the Bahamas.

October 14th, 1964 - Civil rights leader Martin Luther King Jr., at age 35, became the oldest recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize at the time. He donated the $54,000 prize to the civil rights movement.

New Mayor of Sesame Street

by Michael C.

The new mayor of Sesame Street is none other than Elmo. It was a close race between Elmo and Bert, but election officials decided not to let The Count handle the ballots this year after he got distracted and counted every cookie in town instead.

Since taking office, Elmo has wasted no time making changes. His first order of business was renaming Sesame Street to Elmo's World. He also passed a new law banning pet rocks, which has Zoe preparing an appeal. In another controversial move, the new national anthem is now simply "La La La La."

Oscar the Grouch has been assigned 50 hours of community service for "excessive grouchiness."

Grover shared his thoughts on the changes: "That song is so annoying I almost jumped out a window. Good thing I remembered I wasn't wearing my Super Grover cape."

Critics claim Elmo only won because of strong support from the toddler vote, but Elmo's approval ratings remain surprisingly high among cookie enthusiasts and rubber duck owners.

Sesame Street, sorry, Elmo's World, has been brought to you by the letter "I" for Impeachment and the letter "H" for Help!

Super Bowl Champions The Minnesota Vikings

by James B.

Super Bowl Champions The MN Vikings

The Vikings won the Super Bowl after both teams that were supposed to play forfeited. The season began with a 35-21 win over Green Bay. The Minnesota Vikings ended with a record of 12-5.

In the Super Bowl, the Chiefs and the 49ers both ate bad tuna and were unable to play.

The next day, the Vikings played a new team called the Des Moines Corn Beasts and won that game, too. As a result, the Vikings were declared Super Bowl Champions! The first time in franchise history. Go Vikes!

Achievers Club Clips

by Shannen S. & Traci S.

After a grueling tournament that analysts are already calling "the most significant athletic event of the month," Angie's Area claimed victory in the Achievers Club Cornhole Tournament. The team defeated all challengers and secured its place among the all-time greats of recreational beanbag tossing.

Following their victory, team members were awarded medals reportedly crafted from "100% solid gold... probably" and earned the right to display the coveted Golden Cornhole Champion Necklace. Sources confirm the priceless artifact was donated by cultural icon Flava Flav, who has neither confirmed nor denied his involvement.

In honor of Direct Support Professional Appreciation Week, the Club treated staff members to a candy buffet of such magnitude that several local dentists reportedly expressed concern.

Attendees were spotted making what experts described as "questionable but inspiring" nutritional decisions.

The excitement shows no signs of slowing down as the Club prepares for Spirit Week leading up to the Annual Achieve Fall Fundraiser on October 23rd. Rumors of coordinated outfits, excessive enthusiasm, and extraordinary displays of team spirit remain unconfirmed.

The month will conclude with a spooktacular Halloween party on Friday, October 30th. Club members remain optimistic that participants will survive the festivities with only moderate levels of spooky behavior.
